THE LOUISIANA PURCHASE.

If the sum appropriated by the Gen eral Assembly for the purpose of representing Kentucky at the exposition to be held in St. Louis, commemorative of the Louisiana Purchase, should prove to be as great a benefit to the State as this historic purchase is to the United States, the money will not have been spent in vain. The territory of Louisians, of which we took possession a regiment attests his courage and Dec. 20, 1803, under cession from France for the sum of $15,000,000, em braced not only the boundary of the state now bearing that name, but also those of the states and territories of Arkansas, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Oregon, Colorado, both Dakotas, Washington, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Oklahoma and Indian Territory-a pretty considerable slice of our present domain.

The possession of this territory is one of the many blessings for which we are indebted to the statesmanship of Thomas Jefferson, though it is claim. ed in certain quarters that Livingston and Monroe are entitled to the sole credit and Jefferson merely with the sagacity of approving what they did without his knowleege. History, how ever, clearly shows to whom the credit is due.

Long prior to the purchase, the right of navigation on the Mississippi river was a fruitful source of discord among the western settlers. Spaln then owned Louisiana, including both sides of the river's mouth and claimed the exclusive right of pavigation thereon, which deprived the bardy western pioneers of a means of exit for their pro duce. The feeling over this matter was so high at one time that secret negotiations were pecding between certain prominent Kentuckians and the Spanish authorities for the transfer of Kentucky to Spain. The rupture, however, was averted and Louisiana on Oct. 1, 1800, was secretly sold by Spain to France, of which the United States authorities did not obtain knowledge until 1802 Jefferson was greatly chagrined over the change the islands are tranquil, but are by no of ownership from a weak to a strong means ready for self government. power and immediately took steps to purchase what was needed by the Uni-

The recent death of this distinguished gentleman leaves a vacancy in the ranks of the State's citizenship which will be noted. Col. Collier was a man of pronounced individuality. He was unselfish in his friendships. He was disinterested iu his disposition to confer favors. He was generous, obliging, temperate in thought, judgment, and conduct. He was a brave, kindly man. "I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax."

Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trou-ble. Wine of Cardui never fails ble. Wine of Cardui never lains to benefit a suffering woman of any age. Wine of Cardui relieved Mrs. Webb when she was in danger. When you come to the change of life Mrs. Webb's letter will mean more to you than it does now. But you may now avoid the suffering she endured. Druggists sell $1 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

Discourant de la company de la Good News Needs No Blare of Trumpets.

It travels fast and sure. It is like the oscillating pendulum which swings one way and gathers n far the other way. You no doubt have heard the news before this ad reaches you, that there is to be a Big, New Store (yet in some respects not new.) in Stanford. A new store where people in all stations in life are to trade. This store is not to be for one class alone, but for all classes; It is a store which people favored , with affluence and people in the humbler walks of life must all alike regard as their shopping headquarters. It is a store where single purchases amounting to $10, $20 and $30 will often be made, but where purchases amounting to but a few cents are welcomed. No matter what your station in life may be, how large or how small your purchases, you and all others shall be given the same invitation to regard this store as your store, your shopping headquarters, where true economy can always be practiced. We believe the purchase of a paper of pins to be worthy of equally as courteous treatment as the purchase of a fine suit dress, and we shall deem it a source of gratification and pleasure to meet on our new stamping grounds those whom we have served in the past, so that they may make a personal study of our methods and policy of conducting the details of our business, the benefit of which must of necessity be conductive to mutually strengthen confidence. We will add everything practical to give Stanford the best store she has ever had. We believe our fifteen years experience will work to the good of our customers and ourselves.

Kills The Germs Of Grip, Catarrh And Colds. "Costs Nothing if it Fails," Says G. L. Penny.

Now that Hyomei can be obtained in nearly every town and city in the country, it is possible to buy from druggists a health giving climate, to be carried in the purse or pocket. By breathing it a few minutes four times a day you can soon cure grip, coughs, colds and even the worst and most chronic cases of catarrh.

Mr Penny having seen so many remarkable cures made by the Hyomei treatment, that he sells it with the positive agreement to return the money if it Danville on fails to cure.

A complete outfit costs but $1, and con sists of the pocket inhaler, medicine drop per and sufficient Hyomei to last several

It effects a cure in the worst catarrhal troubles and if breathed at the com mencement of a cold or the grip, will check it quickly and prevent sickness. Extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained

When breathed through the inhaler, the germ-killing and health giving Hyomei goes to the most remote cells of the throat and lungs, killing all the catarrha! germs, soothing the irritated mucous membrane and vitalizing the blood with

At this season of the year, every one should have a Hyomei outfit to prevent and cure catarrhal troubles, and ward off attacks of grip, pneumonia and similar germ diseases.

Now, What Do You Think Of This?

Girls are of few days and full of mischief; whoever is deceived thereby is not wise. When a girl cheweth her gum with great haste and stampeth her pretty foot do thou look out. She cometh forth in the evening in low neck and short sleeves, but in the morning she lieth in bed while her mother hustleth. When the sleigh bells tinkleth she standeth by the window and yearneth for a beau, and when he cometh she doeth up his purse He wrappeth buffalo robes about her and buggeth her much and stayeth out beyond his time, and the liveryman addeth four good dollars to his bill. He goeth and sitteth by the fire, and ere he leaveth he poppeth the question and she jumpeth at the chance and as the cock croweth he taketh his departure, and when he remembereth the smallness of his salary he kicketh himself

Knew The Old White Horse.

An ex governor of Massachusetts, who had the remarkable talent of always knowing every body, especially voters, explained at a recent cattle show how he did it. An old farmer who had once driven him across the country came up to shake hands and was immediately recognized. "Ab," said the governor, "how d'you do? How's Jack?" (Jack was the farmer's son. "Oh, he's well," said the delighted old man His interest was still further increased when the governor said: "And how's the old white horse?" When the old man had passed on a really remember that white horse?" "No' he said. "I saw white bairs on his cost and chanced it."

Found a Cure for Indigestion. I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly 51 years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion I can eat almost anything I want to now .- Geo W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by W. N.
